Office Flood Update. . .

As reported last week, the some of the first floor offices in the Parish Office building sustained significant water damage as a result of a broken waterline on the second floor over the Memorial Day weekend. Seitz

Brothers of Tamaqua have completed their demolition and removal of the water logged ceiling, wall materials, cabinets, materials, etc. The drying out and anti-mold remediation processes have also been completed. I am in conversation with a local contractor to "put the rooms back together."

On the bright side, I received a very nice letter the other day from a gentleman from New Jersey who attended our Sunday Mass at Cabrini. He noted my report of this water problem and wanted to help. He enclosed a $500 check in his letter to help us with the repairs of the water damages! Such unexpected thoughtfulness certainly lifted my spirits after a rather frustrating week of cleanup.

Important Notice & A Call to Action:

A piece of legislation is being formulated in the Pennsylvania State legislature regarding a retroactive nullification of the statutes of limitations for filing a civil lawsuit alleging childhood sexual abuse which could have dire consequences for our Catholic community. As proposed, it would force parishes, diocese schools, and charities to defend cases that are 20, 30 or 40 years old, long after the perpetrator and possible eye witnesses have died or clear evidence is gone. It could lead to the closure of parishes, schools, and ministries of today's Catholics, who are in no way responsible for abuse that occurred decades ago. As proposed, a retroactive nullification of these statues would open the floodgates for lawsuits against private and nonprofit organizations, BUT IT WOULD NOT APPLY TO PUBLIC SCHOOLS OR GOVERNMENT AGENCIES. Public entities would still be able to claim "sovereign immunity" from lawsuits, even though the vast majority of Pennsylvania students - 83% - attend public school. Survivors abused in public schools, juvenile detentions facilities, or country foster care programs could not bring suits under the legislation. This provision is clearly unfair and is designed to target the Catholic Church. Sexual abuse is a serious crime that affects every institutions and community in Pennsylvania, public and private. Concerning the Bill HB 1947, the Pennsylvania Catholic Conference DOES NOT oppose the elimination of the criminal statue of limitations. The Harrisburg Diocese supports and agrees that anyone who sexually abuses a child should be severely punished by the law. Sexual predators should be locked behind bars and removed from society so they cannot hurt anyone else. Criminal Cases require a burden of proof that is beyond a reasonable doubt and fairness is built into the system with many checks and balances. Any discussion of a legislative remedy must protect ALL children, not simply penalize some institutions. In civil cases, anyone can file a civil suit with a much lower burden of proof. An alleged abuser may not even still be alive, but a third party, like his or her employer, could be sued even after the perpetrator, possible witnesses or clear evidence is long gone. Removing this fairness from our judicial system would make it impossible for any organization that cares for children to defend itself in court years later.

The Catholic Church has learned hard lessons regarding child sexual abuse and has taken responsibility for the abuse that has occurred within its ranks. The Catholic Dioceses across Pennsylvania have implemented changes that offer assistance and support to abuse survivors. Furthermore, all employees and volunteers within the Harrisburg Diocese and who have contact with children must take courses and be certified by state agencies for suitability in the workplace. Everyone is urged to contact their state lawmakers regarding Bill HB 1947 and oppose unfair changes to the civil statute of limitations. (continued from first column)

You may visit www.PaCatholic.org to use the Pennsylvania Catholic Advocacy Network to send this strong message to your legislators. A listing of legislators with address and contact information is posted on the bulletin board in the vestibule of the church. Please let your voice be heard.

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: 2 Samuel 12:7-10, 13

Because God was displeased with the actions of David concerning Uriah's death in order to marry Bathsheba, God sent Nathan to reprimand David. Nathan reminds David that God anointed him King of Israel and victor over Saul. David realizes his sin against God, but Nathan continues to reveal to David that the child to be born to him shall die.

Second Reading: Galatians 2:16, 19-21

Paul writes of the struggles between Gentiles and Jews who both now profess belief in Christ Jesus. Paul proclaims his life in Christ, working towards unity and faith in the Son of God.

Gospel: Luke 7:36—8:3

While Jesus was dining at the home of a Pharisee, a woman of the city who was a sinner, came and anointed his feet with oil. Weeping, her tears fell upon Jesus' feet and she dried them with her hair. Because of the woman's respect and love, Jesus forgives her sins. This causes those present at the table to question who he is.
