PONDER POINT

Lent comes to reawaken us,
to shake us from our lethargy.

Pope Francis

Remember, the Bill- Collector Always Shows Up!!

When circumstances prevent you from attending Mass on a particular weekend, please remember to bring and add your offertory envelopes to the following week's collection. The parish builds its annual budget based on projected income and projected expenses. Shortfalls in any weekend collection income strains our ability to pay our regular occurring parish bills.

Thank you and God bless all who support their parish, in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health and whether in town or not!

ATTENTION BINGO PLAYERS . . .

Our Break the Bank is Holding

 $1,199 U.S.

Come try your luck to Break the Bank. $1,199 in cash is waiting for you! Someone always wins our “bank” so come try your luck. Doors open Monday nights at 4:30PM and games begin at 6:15PM. Our snack bar is open for your enjoyment. Bingo proceeds are an important part of our parish’s income budget.

Hello, Parish Bakers? We Need Your Help. . .

One of the features of our weekly Monday night Bingo is our “snack bar” where our patrons may purchase a lite dinner item along with dessert. The usual dessert items have been pieces of frosted cake, cupcakes, kandykakes, etc., baked by some of our parishioners. A number of our regular bakers are “retiring” so we need to call forth several new parishioners who would be willing to commit to making a dessert for our bingo once or twice a month. If several folks step up to the plate (or their kitchen counter), we could have a nice rotating schedule for this important part of our Bingo nights. Please call the office to let us know if you would be willing to help us out. Many delicious thanks! Fr. Martin

Lenten Meditation Booklets, Thank You

Our 2017 Lenten Meditation Booklets were made possible through a generous $235.00 donation by Bob & Karol Freiler, offered in loving memory of The Deceased Members of the Freiler and Church Families. Thank you Bob and Karol for providing Lenten blessings to the parish through your generous gift!

DISPENSATION FOR THE FEAST OF SAINT PATRICK:

This year the Feast of Saint Patrick falls on a Lenten Friday. Since Saint Patrick is a principal patron of our diocese, I hereby grant a dispensation from Friday abstinence to all Catholic who reside in the diocese and all who are present within the Diocese on March 17, 2017. Those who take advantage of this dispensation are urged to substitute another form of personal penance, possibly choosing another day within the Second Week of Lent as a Day of Lenten abstinence.

Offertory Gifts at Mass. . .

If, at a particular weekend Mass, you would like to bring up the offertory gifts at that Mass, simply let your wishes be known to one of the ushers in the rear of the church before Mass begins and they will assist you at the proper time.

“BABY BOTTLE BLITZ!!!” Last weekend,

Andy Stefanowicz spoke to us at all the weekend Masses, concerning the good work being done at the Pregnancy Care Center to support God’s gift of human life. After each of the Masses, “baby bottles” were passed out to each person leaving the church with the sincere hope that the bottles will be used to help collect your “Lenten Alms” in support of the Center. Your coins, currency and/or checks (to: Pregnancy Care Center) can be deposited into the bottles. Bottles may be returned to church during the weekend Masses during Lent to the special container, under the stained glass window by the confessional. During non-occupied church times and for security reasons, please bring your bottle with offerings to the parish office. The last day for the “BABY BOTTLE BLITZ” collection will be Sunday, March 26th. What a fine opportunity and good cause to practice your Lenten almsgiving/charity! Fr. Martin

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE
ON THE SUNDAY READINGS
HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

Second Sunday of Lent
March 12, 2017

“God has saved us and has called us to a holy life, not because of any merit of ours but according to his own design – the grace held out to us in Christ Jesus before the world began but now made manifest through the appearance of our Savior. He has robbed death of its power...”

With Peter, James and John we join Jesus on the Mount of Transfiguration. It is a transforming moment, when the Lord reveals to us who He is. The voice speaks, not only telling us of Jesus, but also that we are chosen, His favor rests in us, and our lent is our moment to be transformed by God’s forgiving grace. We remember the simple definition that ‘grace is the very life of God, communicated to us as a gift, and accepted.’

We begin our second week on our journey, aware that we have been chosen. God offers us the gift of His grace, but we need to seek it and accept it. As Paul told Timothy, God’s grace robs sin of its power. Another name for grace is ‘power.’ Use it, seek forgiveness and forgive someone else.

March 12, 2017
Second Sunday of Lent

First Reading: Genesis 12:1-4a

God calls Abraham to leave his family and people and go to a new land. God promises to make the people of this new nation great and to bless Abraham.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 1:8-10

Paul, from his place of imprisonment in Rome, writes words of encouragement to Timothy, telling him that Christ is for them everlasting life.

Gospel: Matthew 17:1-9

Wishing to reveal His glory to Peter, James and John, Jesus takes them to a mountain where he is transfigured before them. When Peter exclaims that he will build three tabernacles here in honor of Jesus, Moses and Elijah, a voice from above proclaims: “This is My beloved Son on whom My favor rests. Listen to him.”
