You Can Help Make Cabrini's 2019
Chicken BBQ Another Success!

Our cooks and volunteers are in place for our October 6th Cabrini Chicken BBQ. The success of the event depends upon how many tickets we sell. For those parishioners who can, help sell blocks of tickets where you work, to your family, friends and neighbors! It's a tasty platter and remember. . . "You have to eat anyway!" Tickets are available in the parish office during office hours. Thanks!

A Holy Calling Forth. . . Mother Cabrini's RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) classes will begin this month (if we have candidates). Our RCIA Program welcomes and walks with these Catechumens, instructing them through classes and faith sharing. These Catechumens are encouraged and supported along the way to their Baptism at the Easter Vigil when they will enter full communion within our Catholic faith. If you know of someone who is interested in this spiritual journey, encourage them to call me at the parish office to register for our 2019/2020 RCIA Program. Sometimes, all an inquirer needs is a bit of encouragement or a gentle nudge from someone to take this important first-step to becoming part of our Catholic Family. Obviously, how we live and witness to our Catholic faith is the best invitation to a non-Baptized inquirer. Fr. Martin

September 22, 2019 TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Amos 8:4-7

The prophet Amos expressed disgust over people who take advantage of the poor. He describes businessmen scheming to cheat the poor, then declares that God will "never forget the things they have done."

Second Reading: 1 Timothy 2:1-8

Paul urges the Christians to pray for all people, especially those in authority. Paul even asked them to pray for the kings who denounced Christ's teachings, because God wants all people to be saved through Jesus.

Gospel: Luke 16:1-13

Jesus tells a story about a servant who tries to cheat his employer. The owner is impressed because he would do the same thing himself. Jesus then describes the importance of being trustworthy in small matters, as well as in greater ones. He then states that no one can serve two masters faithfully, so people cannot give themselves completely to both God and money.
